FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, AND RECOMMENDATION TO ORDER PLAINTIFF TO MOVE FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT

This case was referred to the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge for pretrial management under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and a Standing Order of Reference from United States District Judge Matthew J. Kacsmayk. (ECF 13).

I. BACKGROUND

On November 2, 2023, Plaintiffs filed a Complaint against Defendants. (ECF 1). The docket reflects that Defendants were served with a summons and copy of the complaint on November 8, 2023.¹ (ECF 9-12). Defendants did not file an answer or a motion under Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure within 21 days of service (i.e., on or before November 29, 2023). See Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a)(1)(A)(i), (b). As of the date of entry of this Findings, Conclusions, and Recommendation, Defendants have not entered an appearance in this lawsuit. While Plaintiff sought an Entry of Default as to all Defendants, (ECF 14), Plaintiff has not sought default judgment in regard to any Defendant.

¹ While the Court notes that the docket reflects that service was effectuated, the undersigned makes no finding as to whether service was properly effectuated.

II. ANALYSIS AND RECOMMENDATION

The record reflects that Defendants have been in default for a period in excess of 90 days. The Local Rules authorize the presiding judge to require a plaintiff to seek entry of default and default judgment as to any defendant who has been in default for 90 days. See N.D. Tex. Civ. R. 55.1 (“If a defendant has been in default for 90 days, the presiding judge may require the plaintiff to move for entry of a default and a default judgment. If the plaintiff fails to do so within the prescribed time, the presiding judge will dismiss the action, without prejudice, as to that defendant.”); see also N.D. Tex. Civ. R. 1.1(b) (“The term ‘presiding judge’ means the judge to whom a case is assigned. The word ‘judge’ includes district judges and magistrate judges.”).

Accordingly, it is the RECOMMENDATION of the United States Magistrate Judge that the United States District Judge ORDER Plaintiff to move for default judgment against Defendants within fifteen days of the Court entering an order accepting this Findings, Conclusions, and Recommendation, if the Court enters such order. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a)–(b); N.D. Tex. Civ. R. 55.1, 55.3.

IV. INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE

The United States District Clerk is directed to send a copy of these Findings, Conclusions, and Recommendation to each party by the most efficient means available.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ENTERED February 28, 2024.

UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
